

FUNDING REGULATIONS
OF
FONDATION SUISA

The German version is authoritative.

1. PURPOSE OF THE FOUNDATION

«The purpose of the Foundation is to promote contemporary Swiss and Liechtenstein music-making in all genres. It does not pursue either profit-making or self-help objectives.»

(Article 4 of the foundation charter)

2. MUSIC-MAKING

The term “today’s music-making” as defined by FONDATION SUISA means the creation and/or dissemination of a Swiss and/or Liechtenstein musical repertoire (composition and/or creation of public access) with reference to the present day.

3. FUNDING FOCUS

The funding focus is on the authors of today’s musical works and the performance/application of their repertoires.

4. ASSESSMENT BY A COMMITTEE OF EXPERTS

Each application received is examined by a committee appointed by the Board of Trustees and assessed according to the criteria listed below.

5. SUPPORTED PROJECT FORMS

5.1 Composition commissions

- Applications can only be submitted by clients. Composers and publishers cannot apply for support for themselves.
- Pure arrangement works without a personal touch, such as orchestration, instrumentalisation, etc. are not taken into account.

5.2 Promotion and dissemination

Activities to promote and disseminate Swiss and Liechtenstein music-making:

- Activities must be accessible and/or aim at reaching new audiences or expanding existing audiences.
- Activities must have a supra-regional appeal or be presented supra-regionally.

6. PREREQUISITES FOR FUNDING

6.1 Basic criteria

Funding is limited to activities relating to today's music-making in Switzerland and/or the Principality of Liechtenstein.
